In the fall of 2017, our student enrollment peaked in fall 2015, dipped in fall 2016, but showed an upward trend in fall 2017.

Sex

- Females outnumbered males by approximately 14% in fall 2017 (57% female to 43% male).

Ethnicity

- Latino and Asian students showed the highest enrollments in fall 2017.

- Percentage of Pell-Eligible Undergraduate Students
- First-Time Freshmen 37.7%

- First-Time Freshmen
- Percentage of First-Time Freshmen
- Percentage of Undergraduate Students

- Business Administration continues to be the largest undergraduate major in fall 2017.

Graduation Rates

- First-Time, Full-Time Freshmen 4- and 6-year graduation rates have steadily increased. Specifically, the most recent 4- and 6-year graduation rates (22.2% for fall 2013 and 53.6% for fall 2011, respectively) are at the highest points since fall 2009.

- 6-Year Graduation Rates
- 4-Year Graduation Rates

- First-Time, Full-Time Freshmen 1-Year Continuation Rates
- 1-Year Continuation Rates